

Module 12 Got to have it!

1 Complete the sentences by matching the names of the singers/groups with the songs.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| a Holiday was sung by _____. | Oasis |
| b Imagine was written by _____. | The Beatles |
| c Hello, Hello was sung by _____. | John Lennon |
| d Born in the USA was composed by _____. | Madonna |
| e Wonderwall was performed by _____. | Bruce Springsteen. |

2 Can you think of any other famous songs and singers? Write some sentences about them using passives.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____

3 Tell your partner the sentences without saying the name of the singer or the group. Can your partner guess the singer/group?

4 Write a reply to the situations. Use different ways of making suggestions in each reply.

- a These bags are heavy.
Shall I _____?
- b It's cold in here.
How _____?
- c I'd love a drink.

- d I really need a break.

- e I'm hungry.

- f I'm really tired.

Teacher's notes:

Module 12 Got to have it!

This worksheet is designed for use after completion of module 12.

- 1 Students complete the sentences with the names of the singers/groups.
 - a Holiday was sung by Madonna.
 - b Imagine was written by John Lennon.
 - c Hello, Hello was sung by The Beatles.
 - d Born in the USA was composed by Bruce Springsteen.
 - e Wonderwall was performed by Oasis.
- 2 Students then write similar sentences about singers and groups they know using passives.
- 3 Students tell their partners the sentences without saying the name of the singer or the group. The partners try to guess the singer/group.
- 4 Students write a reply to each situation. Encourage students to use different ways of making suggestions in each reply. The answers will obviously vary. Here are some possible answers.
 - a These bags are heavy.
Shall I carry one for you?
 - b It's cold in here.
How about closing the window?
 - c I'd love a drink.
Why don't we go to the bar on the corner?
 - d I really need a break.
Let's go away for the weekend.
 - e I'm hungry.
How about a sandwich?
 - f I'm really tired.
You should go to bed now.