

Module 15 Imagine

1 Which of these things do you do before and during an exam?

Before: study the night before the exam sleep well
go to all of the classes
revise a little every day

During: answer all the questions cheat

2 A teacher is talking to her students before an exam. Finish her sentences:

- If you sleep well before the exam, _____.
- If you revise a little every day, _____.
- If you try and study the night before the exam, _____.
- If you cheat, _____.
- If you don't go to all the classes, _____.
- If you don't answer all the questions, _____.

3 Find the mistakes in these sentences and correct them.

- If I were president, my life will be completely different.
- If it were 1923, I won't be here.
- If I spoke English perfectly, I won't be studying now.
- If John Lennon were alive today, he will still be singing.
- If there are less wars the world would be a better place.
- If I play football for Manchester United, I'd be very famous.
- If I were rich, I'll buy a yacht.
- If I am you, I'd buy them a present.

4 Finish these quotes by John Lennon with will and would to make correct sentences.

- 'I'm an artist and if you give me a tuba*, I' ____ bring you something out of it.'
- 'If you put me with B.B. King, I ____ feel real silly.'
- 'If everyone demanded peace instead of another television set, then there' ____ be peace.'
- 'You can't cheat kids. If you cheat them when they're children, they' ____ make you pay when they're sixteen or seventeen.'
- 'If all politicians were like Pierre Trudeau, there ____ be world peace.'

*tuba = a musical wind instrument

B.B. King = an American blues musician

Pierre Trudeau = former Canadian Prime Minister (1968-1979)

Teacher's notes:

Module 15 Imagine

This worksheet is designed for use after completion of pages 132–135.

1 Students decide which of these things they do before and during an exam.

2 Students complete the sentences, using will clauses.

Possible answers:

- a If you sleep well before the exam, you'll be rested and perform better.
- b If you revise a little every day, you'll remember facts better.
- c If you try and study everything the night before the exam, you won't remember anything.
- d If you cheat, you're exam will be cancelled.
- e If you don't go to all the classes, you won't see all the material.
- f If you don't answer all the questions, it will be impossible to get full marks.

3

- a If I were president, my life would be completely different.
- b If it were 1923, I wouldn't be here.
- c If I spoke English perfectly, I wouldn't be studying now.
- d If John Lennon were alive today, he would still be singing.
- e If there were less wars the world would be a better place.
- f If I played football for Manchester United, I'd be very famous.
- g If I were rich, I'd buy a yacht.
- h If I were you, I'd buy them a present.

4 Students complete the quotes by John Lennon to make correct conditional sentences. Students should be able to see they can write contracted forms of will and would where there is an apostrophe ('). Check the answers with the group and discuss the quotes if you have time.

- a 'I'm an artist, and if you give me a tuba*, I'll bring you something out of it.'
- b 'If you put me with B.B. King, I would feel real silly.'
- c 'If everyone demanded peace instead of another television set, then there'd be peace.'
- d 'You can't cheat kids. If you cheat them when they're children, they'll make you pay when they're sixteen or seventeen.'
- e 'If all politicians were like Pierre Trudeau, there would be world peace.'